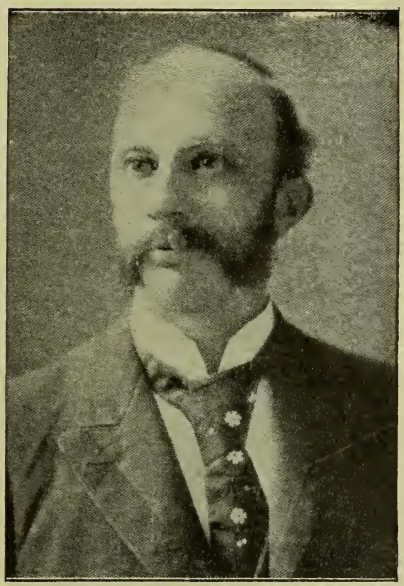
REPORTS.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.



JAS. H. KIRKLAND, PH. D.,

CHANCELLOR VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

As a church we may congratulate ourselves that we still possess the opportunity which the church has held for centuries, the education of her children. There are forces which tend to take from us this opportunity, and the advanced stand which our rivals have taken in higher education, makes it necessary for the church to move forward. To retain our children as members of our church, we must control their education. The salvation of the State, as well as the hopes of the church is in Christian young men and women trained in Christian homes, taught in Christian schools, and consecrated at Christian altars.

We rejoice at the success of the Twentieth Century movement, not only in the amount of money obtained for our schools, but more for the educational awakening of the people as manifested in the marked increase of attendance at our schools. This success should inspire us to greater efforts for still larger results.

We do urge our preachers to continue their efforts until they have secured a contribution from every member of the church for this cause. Let them inform our people that this fund is to be set apart as a sacred trust, the interest alone of which is to be used for the maintenance of our institutions of learning, unless otherwise directed by the donors. In order that prompt collections of what is subscribed, and what shall be subscribed, may be made, your Board offers the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the Presiding Elders shall secure from each pastor in their respective districts the amount that has been subscribed to the fund, and at each Quarterly Conference inquire and have recorded the amount that has been paid on said subscription, and to make report to the Conference Secretary of Education each quarter, of the amount collected, to be published in the Advocate.

We would respectfully recommend that the Trustees and Faculty of Wofford College arrange to relieve Professor J. G. Clinkscales from all services in the Fitting School, so that he may have opportunity to go before the church and represent the College.

We move that the resolution passed at the Conference of 1888, concerning the appointment and aid of beneficiaries by the districts be rescinded, and offer instead that any ministerial student entering Wofford College as such, shall be recommended by the Quarterly Conference of his charge; and he shall, on entrance, give his note for his tuition which, upon his admission into the itinerancy, shall be destroyed, otherwise the same shall be collected. The Treasurer of this Board is authorized and ordered to pay over all directed funds, as the same is received by him.

WOFFORD COLLEGE.

We rejoice to report this institution in a most prosperous condition. We give in full the President's report:

"The 47th collegiate year began September 28, 1900. Up to date 182 students have been registered in college, 9 of these being young ladies taking the full course, and 56 in the Fitting School. All things seem to promise a pleasant and profitable year. The attendance is the largest we have ever had."

COLUMBIA FEMALE COLLEGE.

We are glad to know that the college is filled to its capacity. Dr. W. W. Daniel, the new President, has manifested both zeal and wisdom in conducting the affairs of the institution.

WILLIAMSTON FEMALE COLLEGE.

This college has had a good opening, having on its rolls 90 pupils, who show themselves to be earnest, studious and orderly young ladies. Everything promises a successful year.

PREPARATORY SCHOOLS.

The Carlisle Fitting School has in attendance 75 students. The work done in this school, as well as that at Wofford Fitting School, is most excellent. The Cokesbury Conference School is reported as doing hopeful and satisfactory work. There are 56 pupils enrolled.

We ask that an assessment of $4,000 be made for the current expenses of Wofford College; that $450 be raised for general education, and that $700 be raised for Paine and Lane Institutes.

We request the Bishop to appoint J. W. Kilgo Conference Secretary of Education; W. W. Daniel President of Columbia Female College; S. Lander President Williamston Female College; G.W. Walker. President of Paine Institute; W. S. Stokes, Rector of Cokesbury Conference School; L. F. Beaty, Assistant Editor of Sunday School Literature; S. B. Harper, Student at Vanderbilt University.

We nominate the following Boards of Trustees:

Wofford College—Bishop W. W. Duncan, W. A. Rogers, R. A. Child. E. T. Hodges, Marion Dargan, H. Baer, D. R. Duncan, C. G. Dantzler, C. A. Wood. J. L. Glenn, G. E. Prince, W. E. Burnett, J. B. Cleveland.

EPWORTH ORPHANAGE REPORT.

To the South Carolina Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South,
Convened in Chester, S. C., December 28th, 1900.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

In making this, our Fifth Annual Report, it gives us much pleasure to say that the year just closed has been, in all respects, the most progressively successful in the history of the Epworth Orphanage. There has been a steady improvement from the beginning until now.

There are now 112 children in the Orphanage.

We report unusual good health among the inmates of the institution. There has been one death. Since our last report the infirmary has been completed and furnished. A trained nurse has been employed, and we have an excellent physician, Dr. L. K. Philpot, who cheerfully gives his service without charge.

The children have all been neatly and comfortably clothed, well fed with good and wholesome food, and clean and well supplied dormitories have been provided.

The matrons have been faithful and efficient.

The educational department has been first-class. Four teachers have been employed, who conduct a primary and high school curriculum, equal to our best graded schools.

Special attention is given to religious instruction and training. A church has been constructed with 97 members, 78 of whom are orphans. The church is in Edgewood Circuit, Rev. R. S. Trusedale, P. C.

There have been many material improvements in the way of building and repairing. The plant is now valued at $50,000.00.

The farm has made the best returns this year of all previous years. Under judicious cultivation and fertilizing, the lands are increasing in value and productiveness.

The printing department has given a handsome balance in favor of the Orphanage.

The marble yard business is increasing each month. Satisfactory work is being done in this department, at a good profit.

Our income from all sources, not including the farm, has been sixteen thousand eight hundred and sixteen dollars and seventy-four cents ($16,816.74).

The administration of our Superintendent has been most heartily endorsed by the Board.

The Giles J. Patterson Memorial Building no longer supplies sufficient room for school and chapel purposes, and we have instructed our Superintendent to enlarge the building as soon as adequate funds can be procured. We commend their enterprise to the liberality of the patrons and friends of the institution.

We request that the Presiding Bishop appoint Rev. G. H. Waddell as the Superintendent of the Epworth Orphanage.

The physician of our Superintendent has advised that he must either have competent assistance or resign his position. The Board considers his service now well nigh indispensable, and therefore recommend that an Assistant Superintendent be granted him.

(Signed) A. J. STOKES, President.

Chester, S. C., November 28th, 1900.

ORPHANAGE REPORT No. 2.

We request that the Presiding Bishop appoint Rev. T. C. O'Dell as the Assistant Superintendent of the Epworth Orphanage.

(Signed) A. J. STOKES, President.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

We are grateful to God for the divine blessings that have rested upon the Sunday School work during the year now closing. While we regret to learn of even the slightest decline in Sunday School activity in any part of the world, we are glad that such is not the case with us. We believe that there is more efficient work done in the schools within the bounds of the South Carolina Conference now than ever before.

As usual, the greatest need is for well qualified teachers. We are glad to note the increased interest manifested in Sunday School normal work.

Your Board, through its Executive Committee, prepared this year a regular normal course for teachers—"The Palmetto Normal Course." We do not mean for this, in the least, to supplant the normal lessons in the Sunday School Magazine, but to supplement it. We respectfully urge that, where practicable, the pastors introduce this course into their schools. Upon its completion, a certificate of graduation will be awarded.

We are sorry to learn that there are Methodist schools using any literature other than that so ably prepared by our Sunday School editors and their efficient co-laborers, and so handsomely gotten out by our own publishing house. It is unsurpassed in quality, and we see no reason why any Methodist school should go elsewhere for literature.

As the Board charged with your Sunday School interests, we wish to express our high appreciation of the excellent work done by our Sunday School Editors and their co-laborers. We learn with pleasure that Dr. Atkins is arranging a reading course for teachers. We would also emphasize the circulation of the Children's Visitor.

We offer the following resolutions:

1. That we respectfully urge our Presiding Elders to arrange for and hold District Conferences in accordance with the provisions of the discipline.

2. That an Annual Sunday School Convention be held during the ensuing year, arrangements for which shall be made by our Executive Committee.

3. That hereafter we hold an Anniversary of the Sunday School Board during each Annual Conference Session.

4. That it is with great pleasure and profit that we have heard our Sunday School Editor, Dr. James Atkins, and we pray God's richest blessings upon him in his great work.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

It is with regret that we note the small interest taken in our young people's organization throughout our Conference. The young life of the church, in which there are such wonderful possibilities, does not rise to the measure of its possibilities, because there is a lack of organization, and the want of a single purpose. We are gratified that our State League Conference last May determined to raise the sum of $500 for our Cuba Mission work. This field lies at our very door, and naturally appeals to us. We would encourage them in this work, and we wish to call the attention of all our pastors to this work. We would recommend that where there are Leagues, our pastors will urge them to immediate action in behalf of this worthy cause.

We find that there are 48 Senior Leagues, with 1,325 members.

Again, our League Organ, the Epworth Era, is called to the attention of our pastors and people. There must be enlightenment and spiritual helpfulness wherever it goes.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

After hearing the address of Dr. T. H. Law, Field Agent of the American Bible Society, as to the work of that Society and the wide and effectual door now open for the distribution of the Word of God, both in home and foreign fields, we express our hearty appreciation of the work being wrought by the American Bible Society, and we urge upon the preachers and the people the necessity of more liberal contributions for this cause. We learn that only about two-thirds of the charges in our Conference annually take collections for this cause. We also urge the preachers to carry out the requirement of the discipline, and take this collection in every church. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we signalize the first year of the new century by presenting this cause to every congregation in our charges, and taking collections for the same.

G. P. WATSON, Chairman.

W. J. CARTER, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Christian Church must ever stand for the maintenance of the Christian Sabbath. It is a necessary institution for the growth and development of all true spirituality, and its beneficent influences are felt wherever it is regarded and observed. Infinite Wisdom and Love made it an essential part of the plan of government for the human race, and its great importance is emphasized again and again in the Holy Scriptures, not only by the demands made for its observance, but also by the woes and curses which are pronounced against those who refuse to respect its sanctity.

Our own beloved Zion, whenever it has spoken on this subject, has given forth no uncertain deliverance, but beginning with the General Rule against the profanation of the Sabbath, it has, from time to time, declared unequivocally against those customs and practices which would convert this holy day into a time for worldly business, or for worldly pleasure and sport.

We would recommend the following Resolutions on this subject, at this time:

1. That all our preachers and people are most earnestly urged to discountenance all customs and practices which, in any way, tend to the violation of the sanctity of the Sabbath Day, and among these may be specially mentioned travelling on this day, except on occasions of necessity, and the patronizing of the Sunday newspaper and the Sunday mail, as well as the grosser evils of the Sunday excursion, and the visiting of the Sunday pleasure resorts.

2. That our preachers are requested to preach on this subject at least once during the coming year to all our congregations.

3. That we cordially approve of the work of the Sunday League of America, and wish it God-speed in its efforts in behalf of a proper observance of the Sabbath Day

ANDREW C. DIBBLE, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The silent, seductive, stupendous influence of the whiskey traffic continues its nefarious work of degrading a large per cent. of our population. The liquor business—perhaps more than any other one agency of the devil—is responsible for the poverty and crime incident to our civilization. Its effects may be seen in the vast amount of physical imbecility, intellectual degradation, ignorance, poverty, crime and vice, which is common everywhere.

In view of these facts, we recommend:

I. That as an Annual Conference, we continue to preach the principles of temperance as they are taught in God's Word, being encouraged to believe that as these principles of the Gospel are pressed upon the consciences of men, they will bear fruit, both in the lives of individuals, and in a deeper and wider public sentiment.

II. That as an Annual Conference, we set ourselves on record again as standing in a relation of unqualified opposition to the legalizing of the sale of whiskey, either under "High License" or "Dispensary," as we regard the same as being inconsistent with Christian civilization.

III. We commend the work of the "Christian Temperance Workers" in South Carolina.

R. E. STACKHOUSE, Chairman.

W. C. KIRKLAND, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals expresses its gratification at the condition of our Publishing House, as appears from the report submitted.

We are pleased to commend the Nashville Christian Advocate. It is ably edited, and worthily fills the place of a connectional organ.

We are sorry to learn that The Methodist Review does not pay expenses. Its high grade as a periodical makes it worthy of a place on the table of every thoughtful man.

The Review of Missions is of great value to the church. It gives information of work done, and of the need in all mission fields; and affords a sure and reliable means for missionary work and inspiration.

We are pleased to note the high grade of recent books issued by our Publishing House.

We would especially emphasize the merit and high character of our Sunday School periodicals. The Magazine is one of the very best. Its make-up shows the ability and consecration of the editors, and its contents are calculated to largely increase the spirituality of the Sunday School.

The influence of the Children's Visitor for good upon the lives of our children is incalculable. It is a marvel of cheapness, and should be in the hands of all our young people.

We are pleased to learn that the number of subscribers to the Southern Christian Advocate is increasing, and that there are now about 4,400 subscribers, and we express the hope that the earnest efforts of preachers and presiding elders will soon add largely to the subscription list. This paper ought to be in every Methodist home. It fills a place that no other can fill.

M. L. CARLISLE, Chairman.

WM. S. MORRISON, Secretary.

REPORT OF PUBLISHING COMMITTEE.

The Publishing Committee of the Southern Christian Advocate beg leave to submit their report as follows:

Dr. John O. Willson, the Editor-in-Chief, through another year, as in the past, has done his work faithfully and effectually. He has stood for the right in religion and Methodism, regardless of consequences. His work merits and meets our unqualified endorsement.

Dr. Samuel A. Weber, the sweet-spirited, cultured, Christian gentleman that he is, has filled acceptably and well the place of Assistant Editor.

Under the editorial conduct of these two brethren, for another year the Old Southern has paid regularly its appreciated weekly visits to its subscribers.

The publishers, The State Company, have been faithful and prompt in their work. Comparison with others of the Advocate family shows that not only in the matter, but in mechanical make-up of the paper, our Advocate stands high up on the list. We desire to give permanent expression of our appreciation of the earnest efforts of the publishers to fulfill the conditions of the contract, in giving us a neat and substantial paper.

We desire further to express our appreciation of the altogether pleasant business relations wtih the President of The State Company. He has been always the courteous gentleman.

And without prejudice to either party, the contract with The State Company for the publication of the Advocate has been cancelled, to take effect January 1st, 1901.

We have completed a contract with R. Lewis Berry & Company, of Orangeburg, to publish the paper for the next four years, beginning January 1st, 1901. After said date the Advocate will be issued from Orangeburg, S. C.

Your committee would call special attention to the fact that under this new contract, as in the past, our preachers are pledged to active agency in the circulation of the paper. They are further pledged as agents to make settlement annually in full for all subscriptions charged to them during the year.

The royalty account has been audited, and found to be correct.

Respectfully submitted.

J. S. BEASLEY.
H. B. BROWNE.
D. R. DUNCAN.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We have made a careful examination of the Journals of the several Districts, and find them excellently kept. The Journal of the Orangeburg District merits especial mention as a model record. All the Journals, however, are all that we could expect.

(Signed) R. W. BARBER, Chairman.

HENRY CAUTHEN, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINUTES.

Your committee beg leave to submit the following report:

We have examined the accounts of the Secretary, and find them to be correct, with a balance due him of $42.08.

The following amounts have been received for publication of the Minutes of the present Session:

From Joint Board of Finance	$540 82
From Legal Conference	20 00
Total	$560 82

We nominate Revs. E. O. Watson and S. H. Zimmerman Editors of the Minutes of this Session.

We recommend that an assessment of $700.00 be made for the ensuing year.

We also recommend that cash subscriptions be taken before Conference, at fifteen cents a copy to the amount, at least, of the assessment on each charge for Minutes, and that the list of subscribers be left with the plan of the charge. T. C. O'DELL, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

We are glad to report an improvement in our Domestic Mission field. Several charges that hitherto have been helped are now self-supporting. Notably among these is St. Paul's, Greenville, which now takes rank with our strong appointments. All honor to the noble, devoted preachers who so faithfully and willingly labored in obscurity and under difficulties to achieve such results. Some other charges, by the very nature of the cases, must ever get help from the strong.

Our factory fields present problems too hard for us, and indeed, the whole church is laboring with this new and stupendous phase of our civil, economic and religious life. We trust that the Bishop and his cabinet will, by their appointments and their own work, be able next year to give at least a partial solution to this vexed problem. An awful obligation confronts us

Your Board has passed the following Resolutions concerning the reports on Domestic Mission charges:

1. That blanks with questions covering the information needed by this Board, be prepared and sent out, and that each preacher serving a charge receiving aid from this Board, be required to fill out said blanks and present them to this Board.

2. That the said blanks have place on them for a statement from the Presiding Elder of the charge concerning the wants of the charge for the ensuing year.

3. That no charge can or will be considered for continued appropriation unless the data called for above be rendered to this Board, and that we withhold final settlement until satisfactory explanation be made of any failure to render the report required.

4. That the preachers in charge of Missions, and their Presiding Elders, be requested to supplement the written report with such oral statement before the Board as they may deem necessary.

Dr. Lambuth, one of our General Secretaries, met with the Board. He furnished considerable light on the conditions obtaining in foreign fields. The error so assiduously spread that the missionaries are responsible for the late carnage in China is most abundantly refuted by his showing of the case. In view of the open doors in every mission field, and the necessity of providing our missionaries with the means adequate to meet the demands which have come upon them, we offer the following Resolution:

1. That we raise 50 per cent. of the assessment for Foreign and Domestic Missions by the 1st of March.

A Memorial from the Charleston District Conference requesting that the Board of Missions authorize the borrowing of 25 per cent. of Domestic Mission appropriations has been before us, and after careful consideration, we do not deem such action advisable.

C. E. SMITH, Secretary.

REPORT No. 2 OF BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Your Board offers the following:

Resolved, That our preachers be urged both to take and circulate the Review of Missions.

The Board recommends the following appointments: J. A. Rice, Conference Missionary Secretary: P. A. Murray, Chaplain Port Society, Charleston, S. C.

CHAS. B. SMITH, Secretary.

IN MEMORIAM.

MEMOIRS OF PREACHERS WHO DIED DURING THE YEAR 1900.

REV. A. M. ATTAWAY.

ADNEY MCSWAIN ATTAWAY, eldest son of the Rev. John Attaway, was born in Edgefield District, S. C., on the 1st of October, 1860, and died very suddenly in Pickens County, in January, 1900. Reared by a mother whose whole life gleamed with intelligent and devoted piety, and whose vigorous mind and stalwart character served her well in the necessary absence of her faithful itinerant husband, it is not surprising that he was a child of unexceptionable moral conduct, and that quite early in life he was soundly converted, and joined the Church of his parents. At the very beginning of his Christian course, he felt the call to the Gospel Ministry; but his youth and his innate modesty induced him to put off this duty for several years. In the meantime his education was going on, and he entered Wofford College, where he passed creditably through the Junior Class. He was admitted into the Conference in December, 1885, and filled acceptably the several appointments to which he was assigned. To his logical mind, and his constant study of the Divine Word, were added an attractive voice and a very graceful delivery, that rendered his preaching unusually acceptable and efficient. Especially were his public prayers appropriate and impressive.

But his mother was a chronic invalid; and McSwain inherited some of her physical feebleness. More than once his ardent zeal broke him completely down, and forced him to retire from what became his loved employ; and the heart failure, which snatched him away, when he ought to have been in the prime of his manhood, was only the culmination of his lifetime weakness. His delicate widow and their eight small children linger behind to mourn their loss, consoled in their great sorrow by the satisfaction that he is at rest in his heavenly home.

S. LANDER.

REV. S. P. H. ELWELL, D. D.

Rev. Silas Pinckney Holbrook Elwell, D. D., son of John L. and Rachel Elwell, was born near what is now known as Foreston, S. C., January 5th, 1842.

He was married to Miss Julia C. Rhame, of Clarendon, S. C., December 27th, 1860. He died suddenly in Columbia, S. C., February 17th, 1900.

He was educated in the schools of his neighborhood, and in the town of Sumter, S. C. He was an ardent student, and made the best use of his limited opportunities. Though his school term was short, he pursued his studies to the end of his life. He became acquainted in some degree with what is generally known by men of greater scholastic pretensions.

When the tocsin of war between the States was sounded, he was among the first to respond to the call of his State. He served in the 23rd Regiment of the South Carolina Volunteers. He was on duty in his native State until 1863, when he went with his regiment to the West, to reinforce General Joseph E. Johnson, for the relief of General Pemberton, besieged in Vicksburg, Mississippi. In this campaign he was severely wounded, and lost his left arm at the shoulder. So desperate was his wound, that his life was despaired of by others. It was not thought worth while to make an effort to save his life. But he never for a moment lost heart. His heroic spirit, as he lay in his blood, encouraged others to come to his aid in his struggle for life. He was dauntless in battle, and unconquerable as he lay among the dead and dying. A truer, nobler soldier never bore arms in his country's cause. He was left in the hands of the enemy, and the narrative of his escape from them furnishes a story of heroic courage and tact unsurpassed in the history of the war. Though he was so badly wounded, and so severely mutilated, he was not discharged from the army until after the close of the war.

On his return home he became an enthusiastic Confederate Veteran. He was a member of Camp Hampton, of the United Confederate Veterans, Chaplain of the South Carolina Division of the United Confederate Veterans, on the staff of General C. I. Walker. It was he who inaugurated the movement to erect a monument to the women of the Confederacy. He used his influence effectively for the introduction of Southern Histories in Southern Schools.

He was very fraternal in spirit, and hence he affiliated with quite a number of brotherhoods. He was Grand Chaplain of the Masonic Grand Lodge of South Carolina, a member of the Columbia Commandery, K. T., a member of Myrtle Lodge. No. 3, K. P., Columbia, S. C., and at one time a member of Star Fort Lodge, K. H., Ninety-Six, S. C. They all enjoyed his good cheer and efficient service, and they honored him in the fellowship.

As a Christian, and as a Christian Minister, he was most conspicuous. He was converted to God about the age of twelve years, while attending the school in Sumter, S. C. In his early youth he was impressed that he was called of God to preach the Gospel. Though he was "disobedient to the heavenly vision," he never swerved from his integrity during the war, nor did he succeed in ridding himself of the conviction for his life work. He desired to study law, but the earnest protest of his mother barred his way thither. From what we know of him, we make no doubt that he might have succeeded at the bar.

Under the advice of his teacher, he gave himself up fully to his high calling of God in Christ Jesus. In 1867 he was licensed to preach. In May, of that year, his pastor, the Rev. William Hemmingway, preacher in charge of the Manning Circuit, died. At the request of members of the Circuit, he was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of the deceased pastor. From this Circuit he went up to the South Carolina Conference, which met in Morganton, N. C , in December of that year, as an applicant for admission on trial. He was admitted. Thenceforward his course was onward and upward, until the Master said, "It is enough, come up higher."

He served the following charges: Waccamaw Circuit, 1868-'70; Lynche's Creek Circuit, 1871-'72; Columbia Circuit, 1873; Cokesbury Circuit, 1874-'75; South Abbeville, 1876-'79; Pickens Circuit, 1880-'83; Ninety-Six Circuit, 1884-'85; Bishopville Circuit, 1886-'87; Batesburg Circuit, 1888-'90; Marion Street Station, Columbia, S. C., 1891-'94; Bamberg Station, 1895-'96; Kingstree Station, 1897; Spring Street, Charleston, S. C., 1898-'00.

He received his appointment of 1900, but he fell with his armor on at the opening of the year.

He was ordained Deacon at Cheraw, S. C., in 1869, by Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh; Elder, at Spartanburg, S. C., 1871, by Bishop Robert Paine.

Dr. Elwell was an able advocate of the truth in the pulpit, and on the platform. While he was always impressive and instructive, at times he spoke with great emphasis and power. He especially rose high in thought and expression, when missions or temperance was his theme.

He was more than a preacher and platform speaker. He was a practical man of affairs. He was a builder of churches and parsonages, among which are parsonages of Ridgeway, Columbia Circuit; at Greenwood, Cokesbury Circuit; South Abbeville; at Easley, Pickens Circuit; and at Ninety-Six. Churches—Bethlehem, Lynche's Creek Circuit; repaired Ridgeway Church, Columbia Circuit; Rehoboth, a new Society, Batesburg Circuit; rebuilt Marion Street Station Church, Columbia, S. C.

He was a patron of education, organizing the schools in communities, he served for more effective work. The schools and their buildings at Pickens, Bishopville and Batesburg owe much to him. He organized the movement, and furthered the building of the Girls' Boarding Hall at Bamberg, S. C., for the Carlisle Fitting School. When there was special need of a supply teacher, he was ready to serve in the class room.

Rutherford College conferred on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity, in 1892.

Looking at the facts as they appear, we accord to him the judgment that he was no ordinary man. He met the varied demands upon him with cheerfulness and success.

His end was sudden, but it was not unexpected to him. For months the shadows of death were just before him, but they did not gloom his countenance, nor depress his spirit. His words of blissful hope, which he addressed to his congregation in his last regular service, linger with them still as a benediction of faith and hope.

"Praise be thy new employ
And while eternal ages run
Rest in thy Saviour's joy."

A. J. STOKES.

REV. M. H. POOSER.

The Rev. Matthias Hutchinson Pooser, son of Emanuel and Frances Pooser, was born in the town of Orangeburg, S. C., on November 9th, 1823. Reared in a refined and pious home, he early imbibed the principles of courtesy and Christianity. He joined the Methodist Church at old Sadler Swamp camp meeting, at the sge of seven years, and lived worthy of his profession all his days. His education, well begun in an intelligent home, was carried forward in the schools of his native town, and continued by judicious reading to the end. He was thrice married:

On December 25th, 1847, to Mrs. Jane Webber, whose maiden name was Lord; on March 31st, 1886, to Miss Lizzie Marshall, of Charleston, S. C.; and on September 25th, 1895, to Miss Louise Williams, of Greenville County, S. C. All were help meets indeed. Three children were born of his first marriage, all of whom survive—one of them a great but patient sufferer.

He was called of God to preach the Gospel, and was licensed in 1870. In December, 1873, he was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference, and year by year he went willingly where he was appointed, serving his charges with unwearying fidelity. Everywhere he won respect and esteem, and God gave him seals to his ministry. His last field was Lancaster Circuit and City Mission. He entered upon his work there with zeal, but was soon stricken by sickness. Apparently he recovered, and filled his appointments on April 8th. The Wednesday night following he retired, seemingly in fair health. About 1 A. M., Thursday, he was awakened by a difficulty of breathing. Only the family was present. Loving hands ministered as they could, but in vain. After an hour or two of suffering, he murmured, "Oh, glory," and was gone—gone to the land of life eternal. On Good Friday his remains were laid to rest in the cemetery of the Presbyterian Church at Orangeburg. The summons came suddenly, but he was ready.

Brother Pooser was a brave, manly man, a thoughtful and kind neighbor, a friend true as steel, a Christian of positive, settled experience and consistent life, a faithful pastor, an earnest and impressive preacher. He was emphatically a gentleman—"a gentleman of the old school"—the better school. Graceful deportment, and chaste, elegant speech, were part of his very nature. No rude, ungenerous acts marred his life. He was the mould and fashion of the gentleman and courteous Christian. And these traits marked his path from childhood to the grave. There were no lapses nor wanderings. All was consistent and steadfast. Converted in earliest years, he clave to Christ, and walked in His courtesy and integrity until called above. Like Obediah, he could say: "I have served the Lord from my youth." Like Paul, he could claim: "I have kept the faith."

Therefore, we are confident that he now wears that crown which the righteous Judge gives to them that love His appearing. All his long life devoted to God! How we should covet the shining story—and its everlasting reward!

JOHN O. WILLSON.

REV. EDWARD B. LOYLESS.

EDWARD B. LOYLESS has answered the roll call of this Conference for the last time. It was on the 22nd of last April, that the writer received at his home in Yorkville, the following telegram from Mr. James Loyless, of Spartanburg: "Father died last night 10.15." Then it was, that a noble, sweet soul, disenthralled from the bondage of its hindering clay, went home to God.

Brother Loyless was ready to go: ready by all the tokens of Christian consecration to the service of God and the Church; and ready, too, by the fires that consume the dross and refine the gold—the fires of a protracted, painful illness for the last several months of his life. He was at the time of his decease a superannuated member of the South Carolina Conference, which body he joined December, 1885, and in which body he labored actively, and with fruitful results, till the failure of his health last year, serving seven years on Circuit, and seven on Missions. He served as a local supply several years, rendering most efficient and acceptable service before his membership in this Conference.

He was a faithful man of God and servant of the Church. He was not only the pastor of his people, but their personal friend; ready to sympathize with them, and on occasion and opportunity to serve and help them. The writer knew him well—quite well. We were close friends. In all my acquaintance with this Conference, covering a period of thirty-eight years, I have never known among us a more thorough Christian gentleman than Edward B. Loyless. Shakespeare makes King Lear to claim of himself that he was every inch a king. Loyless was every inch a man.

His educational advantages were slight, and his preaching unpretentious and plain; and yet his was a useful and edifying ministry.

He was born in Beaufort District, September 10th, 1842, and was married November 5th, 1874, to Miss Sarah E. Sanders, of Colleton County. Seven of his eight children survive, and these, with their widowed mother, claim our tender sympathy.

At fifty-eight years of age, in the ripe maturity of his influence and his powers, he is called away from us. A few months ago strong and well, and now, after a rapid decline, at home with God.

Said Edmund Burke, in the English Parliament, and in memoriam of a lately deceased member of that august body: "What shadows we are, and what shadows we pursue!"

May we not get the most out of the life that now is, by putting the most into it, and so following Christ after the example of our sainted and ascended brethren, be found in Christ here, and with Christ forever. S. A. WEBER.

REV. ERVIN G. PRICE.

On September 13th, 1852, Rev. Ervin G. Price was born in Colleton County, S. C. Death claimed his father and mother when he was of very tender years. Fortunately for him the care and training of his early years fell to the lot of his grandmother. Like the parent of old who watched over the intellectual and spiritual development of Timothy, she brought "him up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

His opportunities for an education were not large. To some men they would have meant the paralysis of all earthly hope. The only thing he demanded was standing ground. This was given, and he moved earnestly forward.

Early in life he felt and heard the call of God to preach His Gospel. This call was as emphatic as that which came to Jonah; but, unlike Jonah, there was no desire "to flee to Tarshish." December, 1876, dates his entrance into the South Carolina Conference. This Conference was held in the town of Chester. Henceforth his life was consecrated to the uplifting of humanity and the glory of God.

In all his work he was utterly devoid of pretense and policy. He never wore two faces. Cardinal Granville, whose life was composed of suavity and deception, would have found in him his deadliest foe. What he conceived to be right received his warmest commendation, and what he believed was wrong was condemned with all the power that he possessed. He occupied no middle ground in his opinion of any man, or any fact.

He was extra diligent in his intellectual work. He bought and mastered the best books. He knew how "to winnow the wheat and get rid of the chaff." His sermons were crowded with clear, plain, deep, and very original ideas. Our Conference contained few better preachers than our departed brother. If all things are considered, his life as a preacher was a marvellous success. Through his preaching sinners were converted, backsliders reclaimed, and believers were firmly established on the Rock of Ages.

He was a church and parsonage builder, and the annihilator of church debts. A number of lovely church buildings mark his progress through the years. He was conscious of the fact that it was a very easy thing to build a parsonage or church on credit, and leave the debt for your successor to pay. He was willing to struggle and labor that all buildings that he caused to be erected should be free of all encumbrance. In the Providence of God he was sent to several fields where the people were trembling before fearful debts. He believed that this was one of the deadliest foes that ever crossed the pathway of the progress of the Church. It required nerve and courage to attack the foe, but he didn't falter or hesitate for a single moment. His efforts were always crowned with victory.

His home was his "Beulah Land" On September 13th, 1887, he married, at Reidville, N. C., Miss Carrie Thomas. His was one of those marriages made in heaven. He was all devotion, and his wife lavished upon him her truest love. Isaac and Rebecca had in them a real parallel. To the four sweet girls sent into his home he was the kindest of fathers.

His struggle to live when attacked by his fatal illness was truly wonderful. Cronje, with his 4,000 men, environed by 40,000 of the enemy, who were playing upon them with lyddite shells, didn't surpass him in heroism. The last thing he proposed to do was to surrender. The fight he made must have won the admiration of the very angels of God.

As I looked a few years ago on the sword of the greatest General Poland ever produced, I said: "The sword of a great man, but one that quailed before death."

Our brother quailed not before death. As he sank out of human sight, his face was stern with courage. When, on April 28th, 1900, he passed away, in the old historic town of Cheraw, South Carolina, Methodism lost one of the bravest men that ever led her troops to victory. Around his sleeping dust glory will forever stand guard. J. THOMAS PATE.

REV. SIDI H. BROWNE.

Rev. Sidi Hamet Browne was born in Anderson County, S. C., September 23rd, 1819, and died at his home, in the city of Columbia, September 13th, 1900. He was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference, at Fayetteville, N. C., December, 1845. He was an effective itinerant preacher for forty-two years. He served fourteen years on Circuits, ten years on Stations, sixteen years on Districts, and two years as agent of the Columbia Female College. He was elected a delegate to three General Conferences. In 1887, at the Conference at Spartanburg, he was granted a superannuated relation. From the day that he joined the Conference, to the close of his life—more than half a century—he never failed to answer the roll call at the Annual Conference.

Brother Browne was a preacher of unusual ability. Though his educational advantages were limited, yet, endowed with a sound mind in a sound body, he attained a development of his mental faculties, and accumulated a stock of knowledge which made him a tower of strength in the pulpit. Few men surpassed him in originality of thought, in analytic power, in logical force, and in simplicity and aptness of illustration. His chief mental characteristic was independence of thought. His preaching was always instructive, ministering to the edification of the hearer. He never dealt in commonplace platitudes, but, like a wise scribe, he brought forth out of his treasure things, new and old, and he never failed to put the old in a new setting. He made no attempt at oratory. In simple style and plain language he told the story of redeeming love.

He was a spiritual preacher. His sermons were saturated with Gospel truth. Having the word of Christ dwelling in him richly in all wisdom, he was a "workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." His preaching was spiritual, because he was himself a man of deep spirituality. His experience of conversion was clear and distinct, and he never doubted its reality. The day, the hour, and all the circumstances connected with his conversion, were fresh in his memory to the day of his death. He lived close to the cross, where he rejoiced in the consciousness of communion with God, of fellowship with Christ, and of the perpetual in-dwelling of the Holy Ghost.

The theme upon which he delighted to talk, and preach, and write, was love. The Christian Neighbor, established April 2nd, 1868, was born out of a heart in which love to God and man was the controlling principle. He not only advocated peace and good will toward man, but his life was, in itself, a Gospel of love.

It was my privilege to see him often during the closing days of his life. In the last conversation that I had with him, he said: "I am ready to go, and I am only waiting to be called home." I can say with St. Paul: "To me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

W. R. RICHARDSON.

REV. JOHN OWEN.

JOHN OWEN was born at Wisbeach, England, November 2nd, 1851, of sterling Wesleyan Methodist stock, his father being a member of the Wesleyan Conference. He was educated in the common schools of England, and at the age of eighteen, with his father, came to this country. May, 1869, he landed in New York. Thence he came to Chesterfield County, in this State, where he remained for one year. After this, his father having bought a plantation in Sumter County, and returned to England, John Owen took charge of the plantation, and farmed there until the time of his entrance into the South Carolina Conference.

He was first married to Miss Josephine Watson, of Hartlepool, England, who died one year afterward. December 23rd, 1875, he was married to Miss Nannie J. Warren, of York County, S. C. Seven children blessed this union, and these, with the devoted wife, are left to mourn the loss, but with the precious heritage of blessed memory, of a noble father and tender husband.

At the age of fourteen years, while yet living in England, he had joined the Church, but coming to this country, and settling on a remote river plantation, he fell away from church associations. September, 1875, he was converted, and began afresh with that conversion, and joined the Methodist Church at Harrison, Mecklenburg County, N. C.

A man of John Owen's temperament and talents was simply buried in the locality and work in which he was engaged at this time. He needed a sympathetic friend to bring him forward. This he found in Rev. A. J. Stokes, Presiding Elder of the Sumter District. Brother Stokes becoming acquainted with him, saw at once the man in John Owen, and thrust him forward into work, and thus brought out a man of genius that would otherwise have remained in obscurity, unconscious of his own powers, and unknown to all.

Brother Owen was licensed to preach in 1883. He served as supply on the Richland Circuit, in 1885, in December of which year he was received on trial into the South Carolina Conference.

His first appointment was West Lancaster Circuit, where he served three years. His further appointments were: Pee Dee, one year: Mullins, four years; Clio, one year; Orangeburg District, as Presiding Elder, four years, and Johnston. It was while on Johnston, toward the close of his second year there, that on the afternoon of October 30th, 1900, while bird hunting, for the purpose of supplying a delicacy for a sick member and friend of his pastorate, he was accidentally shot by the young friend who was accompanying him. He recognized at once the fatal character of his wound, but showed no fear, not even nervousness, and throughout all the forty-nine hours of intense suffering in which he lingered, was calm, conscious, and with heroic fortitude bore his suffering without a groan. He spoke kindly and gently to and of the young man, who was heart-broken because of the accident at his hands. With expression of calm faith in God, during the evening of November 1st, from brave endurance of suffering he passed into sweet enjoyment of the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

Fifteen years ago John Owen, with the writer, joined the South Carolina Conference in Columbia. Meeting for the first time in the examination room, our souls were knit as the souls of Jonathan and David, and a friendship formed which has been an inspiration, and will ever be a gracious memory.

John Owen was among the noblest souls I ever knew. Truer, nobler heart never beat in breast of man. Quiet, retiring, meditative, the currents of his life ran deep, and with tremendous force. His gifts were of a rare and high order. The small change of commonplace talk he had little of. He reserved his fire for questions and occasions that demanded power, and was revealed on such occasions as the capable man he was. His power of language and expression, when under the sway of impassioned thought, was often a source of amazement even to those who knew best his great power. I have heard words as beautiful and eloquent fall from his lips as ever from the lips of man.

Sensitive and reticent as he was, it took time for his brethren to know and appreciate him. Those who were with him in special meetings, and especially those who were privileged to work with him, during his term as Presiding Elder of the Orangeburg District, came to see him as he was, and to appreciate his heart of pure gold. In the end, few, if any, men among us are more generally and genuinely loved than John Owen. Precious is, and will ever be his memory.

True, loyal-hearted friend—the man I loved with more than a brother's love—with whom my life was closest bound—to write of him as dead—as gone out of my life—how can I? No, no, no, he is not dead. He has not gone out of my life. He can never die. He can never go out of our lives. Death has no power over such a life as his. Death has no power to sever the bonds of true friendship. Though the shadow feared of man break fair companionship, and hurry one on where we cannot "see nor follow, though we walk in haste," yet soul in soul we are, and shall be bound forever, and, bye and bye, we shall meet, and with God commune of all life's story and heaven's glory.

Folded are the once busy hands, stilled the loyal heart, and silent the silver tongue to earth; but busy now those hands in heavenly employ, filled that heart with all holy love and divine rapture, melodious that voice with praises to God. We know where to find him, and, though with tear-dimmed eyes, we follow on.

E. O. WATSON.

WIVES AND WIDOWS.

From the very inception of the movement, Christianity has been greatly indebted to women. To the call of Christ they made instantaneous response. While Peter denied his Master, and Judas proved false, and the rest of the disciples "forsake Him" in a crucial hour, the women alone were true.

To the cause of the Son of God they gave their hearts. This step they never regretted. Down through the centuries "they have witnessed a good confession." When death or recantation was the stern demand, they did not shrink from dying.

In every advanced movement of the Church, they have taken their place in the front line. They have never been willing to call a retreat. If the note was sounded, they drowned it with the thrilling cry, "Forward march." The women of Methodism have not been inferior to their sisters who have "entered upon eternal joy." It is especially true that the wives of our preachers have bravely met every test, and have never quailed before any requirement. Without the help of the noble women in the parsonage, the work of many a preacher would have been a failure.

This year six of these consecrated women have vanished from human sight:

Mrs. Francis Y. Newberry, wife of Rev. I. J. Newberry, died April 9th, 1900. Aged 62 years.

Mrs. Mary Gillespie Shipp, widow of Rev. A. M. Shipp, D. D., died June 9th, 1900. Aged 74 years.

Mrs. Ann E. Walker, widow of Rev. Charles S. Walker, died July 1st, 1900. Aged 80 years.

Mrs. Lillie Hodge Boulware, wife of Rev. R. C. Boulware, died July 19th, 1900. Aged 32 years.

Mrs. Annie Kennedy Clarkson, wife of Rev. G. F. Clarkson, died August 3rd, 1900. Aged 30 years.

Mrs. Ann Frances Loyal, wife of Rev. L. C. Loyal, died November 19th, 1900. Aged 71 years.

From joyful experience, these devoted ones now know that "there remaineth a rest for the people of God."

"We turn our faces from the light and cry, 'The darkness comes,'
But there is no night.
Our loved ones go beyond our longing sight;
We wrap the clouds about our heads and say, 'Tis night.'
But in God's sunlight they and we forever stand—
Tis only vapor hides them from our eyes."

TEN GOOD REASONS ··

FOR PATRONIZING THE

1. It is situated in the quiet village of Williamston, in piedmont South Carolina, where clear, cool, sparkling water abounds, and the pure, healthful air has no taint of malaria. The celebrated Williamston Chalybeate Spring is about 200 yards from the College.

2. Its pupils are treated as members of the College family, in sickness and in health. Teachers and pupils all enjoy the same home comforts and fare.

3. The number of boarding pupils is limited to about fifty. This assures each pupil that maternal oversight and care which every young lady needs, and which she cannot have in a very large institution, where the individual is unavoidably merged in the mass.

4. It possesses and uses excellent reference and circulating libraries, a well-equipped chemical laboratory, extensive physical apparatus, fine new musical instruments, and a skylight studio, with its own firing kiln.

5. It does not burden its pupils with a number of difficult studies at once. Besides composition, spelling, &c., each pupil has one principle study at a time. To this she gives almost exclusive attention for about five weeks. She then drops it, and takes up another in the same way. This plan tends to prevent the dissipation of thought which results from undertaking several difficult subjects at a time.

6. It doee not put its pupils on the College stage on any public occasion. This feature secures an incalculable saving of time, money, and modesty, and tends to keep away young ladies who think more of display than of the cultivation of their powers.

7. Graduation may occur at any season of the year, whenever the candidate has finished the required course of study. The loss of a short time puts off one's graduation only a few weeks, instead of a whole year, as on the annual plan.

8. From the above facts, it can enforce a reasonably high standard of scholarship with less difficulty than an institution conducted in the usual way. How faithfully this has been done may be judged somewhat from the fact that during the twenty-nine years of the history of the College, it has turned out only one hundred and fourteen graduates, an average of not quite four a year. All these are full graduates. We have no others.

9. A new pupil entering, or a former pupil returning, is furnished with appropriate work at the beginning of any one of the seven sections into which the school year is divided. The whole school is re-classified every section; and a new pupil begins the new section's work as conveniently as if she had come at the opening of the session.

10. It is conducted on Christian principles; and its history has been frequently marked by signal displays of divine power in the conversion of many souls. Several of its pupils are now engaged in foreign missionary labors.
